By completing this application Brown County does not acknowledge that current Host opportunities exist and does not guarantee you will become a Campground Host with us. By completing this application, you are stating your interest and staff will contact you should we have questions or you are selected for an interview. Background checks are required prior to hosting at Brown County Parks.

General Information:
Our Campground Hosts stay on site at no charge (minimum of a water and electric site will be provided) and in return are available and at their site most weekdays and every weekend. Primary duties consist of answering questions, assisting with registration, being friendly courteous and be willing to talk with visitors throughout the day. Additional duties include cleaning campsites and restrooms and constant contact with our Park Rangers regarding campground updates.

You can submit your application by emailing the completed application to: BC_Parks@browncountywi.gov or by mailing it to:
