

Purchasing - Request For Information (RFI) Process

Last Revision Date: 3/18/2014

Definition: A RFI is a structured purchasing process used to determine capabilities & costs for particular goods/services.

(commonly used for budget planning purposes)

At this step the RFI information/results are available to the public.*