

ABOUT THIS HANDBOOK

This Community Resource Handbook is updated as of May 2022.

Please note, this handbook was revised during the time of the COVID-19 Pandemic. Information provided is subject to change.

This handbook is developed by the University of Wisconsin-Madison Division of Extension Brown County FoodWise. Increasing accessibility of low-cost community resources to low income families is one way to extend the food budget.

Inclusion of organizations in this handbook does not constitute an endorsement nor does omission constitute disapproval. We have attempted to list agencies that meet the above mission. All counseling providers are nonprofit organizations.

The Community Resource Handbook is continually updated with listings on the web. You can view this publication by visiting www.BrownCountyExtension.org. Click on FoodWise. Then, click on the Community Resource Handbook link.

If you know of organizations that should be added or changed, or if you would like to order additional handbooks, please contact Brown County FoodWise at BC_UW_Extension@browncountywi.gov. Please note: we only list non-profit organizations.

University of Wisconsin, U.S. Department of Agriculture and Wisconsin counties cooperating. An EEO/AA employer, University of Wisconsin Extension provides equal opportunities in employment and programming, including Title IX and American with Disabilities (ADA) requirements. FoodWise education is funded by the USDA Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program- SNAP and Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program - EFNEP.

ABOUT FOODWISE

FoodWise employs a combination of evidence-based strategies designed to promote changes for individuals, communities and environments to help make the healthy choice the easy choice.

- We expose people to new fruits and vegetables and why they are important.
- We teach parents how to plan and prepare healthy meals for children and infants. Food safety is part of our program.
- We empower families with limited financial resources to choose healthful diets and become more food secure by spending food dollars wisely.
- We support communities in making the healthy choice, the easy choice where people live, learn, work and play.

To learn more about developing a nutrition education partnership with your agency, contact the University of Wisconsin-Madison Division of Extension Brown County FoodWise at 920-391-4654.

Safe Place for Newborns

Website: www.safeplacefornewborns.org

24/7 Crisis Line: 1-877-440-BABY (2229)

Email: safeplacefornewborns@hotmail.com

The Safe Haven Law in Wisconsin was enacted on April 3, 2001. This law allows any parent to safely surrender their unharmed newborn up to 72 hours old to any EMT, hospital employee or at any fire or police station - NO QUESTIONS ASKED. This law allows a parent to anonymously surrender their newborn without fear of prosecution.

Women can safely deliver newborn in a hospital and still use this law. Hospital deliveries are preferred as it allows for safe delivery and ensure both mother and newborn receive the necessary medical treatment. A hospital delivery allows mother and baby to get proper care and avoid negative outcomes or medical complications. Any infant born in a hospital may be relinquished at that facility as long as the decision is made within the 72 hour timeframe.
