Parents Forever Co-Parenting Classes

Parents Forever will assist unmarried, separated, or divorced parents in successfully navigating a family transition. Topics discussed include cooperative co-parenting strategies, personal wellness, communication, and children's needs.

The Parents Forever curriculum is based on research about the impact of divorce and separation on families and how to not only survive, but thrive, after this family transition. Because of its focus on both parents and children, Parents Forever can benefit the entire family.

Parents, grandparents, and legal guardians are eligible to register. A certificate of completion is given to those that complete the class. These FREE classes are supported through funding from the Brown County Child Support Agency and the Access & Visitation Grant. Classes are presented by UW-Madison Division of Extension Brown County.

An EEO/AA employer, University of Wisconsin-Madison Division of Extension provides equal opportunities in employment and programming, including Title VI, Title IX, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act requirements.
